I swear that my store management also binds themselves that my grading is accurate and not based on guesses or approximate comparisons of other than GIA or AGS grading systems.

I further swear that if this diamond is bought by this customer, that this customer may have the diamond graded at the customer's expense by the Gemmological Institute of America (GIA) or the American Gemological Society (AGS) Laboratories, and if the stone is not graded by the GIA/AGS at the same or better grades as listed above, that (the store) _____ will reimburse the entire cost of shipping, insurance, and the entire cost of the Grading Report or Diamond Quality Document (usually $100-$150) and will replace the diamond at no additional cost with one of the same weight and grades as listed above, also to be verified by the GIA/AGS Labs.
